A note from our Artistic Director

Hello!

I'm Sam Longley, the Artistic Director at Barking Gecko Arts. I've been working as an actor in Western Australia for many years. You may have seen me perform at your school in the 2000s or teach a workshop on improvisation or character embodiment for your students. Perhaps you've watched a show I was in and thought, "That tall guy is funny," and if you haven't, then believe me, I'm at least one of those things.

As I looked for work to include in our 2025 program, I wanted to create shows for primary and secondary school audiences and their families. I aim to produce shows that are heartfelt, intelligent, and fun. I want our audiences to enjoy Barking Gecko shows and workshops and be intellectually and emotionally engaged. I believe that art for kids doesn't need to be simple, but it should be exciting and delightful. Our 2025 season offers something for kids of all ages and the teachers who guide them.

I am excited for you to experience what we have in store for the 2025 season, and I am eager to collaborate with you in the years to come.

If you have any questions or ideas, please contact me at sam.longley@barkinggecko.com.au.

Sam Longley, Artistic Director
Barking Gecko Arts

A note from our Festival Director

Welcome to Barking Gecko Arts!

I am thrilled that we have joined forces with Barking Gecko to present the AWESOME Festival and an array of fantastic learning and engagement programs. This exciting merger of two outstanding organisations means that you get the best of both worlds for your students: beautifully crafted theatre, the AWESOME Festival, an expanded range of workshop and incursion offerings, and the support that you need to bring learning to life.

Nothing beats the experience of live performance and having presented Sam

Longley's delightful shows on numerous occasions at the AWESOME Festival, I can assure you, we are all in for a treat. I encourage you to take some time to ponder the shows on offer and get your excursion bookings in early!

Once again, we'll be offering our AWESOME Day Out packages that so many of you love. With the Perth Cultural Centre out of action, we'll be taking the AWESOME Festival excursion program out of the city with multiple locations on offer for school groups.

Little Impressions is back in 2025. We absolutely LOVE presenting a gallery of your students' artworks at the public season of the AWESOME Festival. In 2025, we will be exploring curiosity.

I look forward to seeing you then.

Jenny Simpson, Festival Director

HOODS

by Angela Betzien

Secondary Years 9 - 12

From the creators of Children of the Black Skirt comes a contemporary tale of Hansel and Gretel.

Each night two hoods ride a train to a wrecking yard on the outskirts of the city. Here, in this cemetery of stories, they are storytellers with the power to fast forward, pause and rewind. Tonight, they tell the story of three kids left in a car.

Rewind. It's Friday, KFC night and the last day of school before Christmas. Kyle, Jessie and baby brother Troy are waiting in the car for their mum. As night approaches the car park takes on a dark and sinister aspect filled with strange and familiar characters. The shopping centre closes, Mum still hasn't returned, and the baby won't stop crying.

HOODS is an exceptional show for teenage audiences, especially relevant to students studying English and Theatre. It vividly illustrates key elements of Poor Theatre, omniscient narration, physical theatre, and seamless character transitions, all within a dynamic and impactful production. HOODS uses the child's point of view to bring perspective and moments of lightness in a narrative that deals with poverty, domestic violence, self-harm and social responsibility. It's also recommended as a Year 11 ATAR Drama text.

This work was originally produced by Barking Gecko Arts in 2009.

REASONS TO STAY INSIDE

by Katy Warner

Primary Years 3 - 6

Pedro used to run, skateboard, play soccer, and attend school. Not anymore. Pedro stays inside now.

His best friend, Flora, thinks that's boring and kind of freaky. But Pedro doesn't care. He's building a pillow fort (he would prefer you call it 'The Death Star'), and it's getting bigger and bigger every day. Now, it's getting harder and harder for Flora to reach him.

Pedro has the best Reasons to Stay Inside, but Flora knows what he's missing, and she will do whatever it takes to get her best friend to come outside.

Reasons To Stay Inside is a delightful show that will have young audiences laughing out loud and embracing their bestie. Tackling children's mental health with insight and positivity the production encourages resilience, peer support, and open conversation about emotions. Reasons to Stay Inside engages audiences at the height of their emotional intelligence and asks them to imagine how they would support a friend. It's playful, hilarious and is an excellent fit for primary school kids.

Learning & Engagement Workshops

Available pre-and-post-performances

Barking Gecko Arts offers a range of workshops to primary and secondary schools and organisations. Workshops can be held in the comfort of the school environment or off campus at the State Theatre Centre of WA or Subiaco Arts Centre. Please note these venues outside the school premises are subject to availability and at an additional cost. Alternatively, we can tailor workshops specific to your learning requirements.

STORYTELLING AND LITERACY

Excite your students with story writing! Meet a Western Australian author, learn about storytelling and text structure, and get started on creating your own imaginative storybook or graphic novel. This workshop can be tailored to suit the literacy level of participating children and connects students with world-class Western Australian authors.

SENSATIONAL SCULPTURE

How do you take your art into the third dimension? This workshop connects students with a professional sculpture artist and gives them hands-on experience in developing artistic processes and techniques used in the built form. It can be tailored to suit the resourcing at your school, including clay and non-clay forms of sculpture. Sculpture can be linked across the curriculum to explore mathematics, shape, and concepts of geometry.

CREATIVE PLAY (PRIMARY)

Best suited for K-4, the Barking Gecko Arts Creative Play workshop will send children's imagination into overdrive. A Barking Gecko Arts Teaching Artist will work through a range of activities to help curious and fascinating young minds explore and discover their creativity as well as help express their emotions.

MUSIC MAKING (PRIMARY)

Experiment with rhythm, percussion, looping and performance. This workshop connects students with a professional musician who will encourage musical experimentation and improvisation.

This workshop can be tailored to the resourcing available at your school, such as incorporating a class set of instruments, making instruments from scratch, exploring songwriting and more.

CIRCUS SKILLS (PRIMARY AND SECONDARY)

Circus skills are an amazing way to connect your students to their bodies, develop deep focus, and build unique physical skills. Circus disciplines can be used to extend drama and dance with unique forms of visual storytelling and connect students with aspects of social and emotional wellbeing and regulation.

This workshop will teach students a variety of skills, such as juggling, tumbling, object manipulation, and group work, and it can be tailored to suit your students' abilities and interests.

ENVIRONMENTAL ART (PRIMARY AND SECONDARY)

This workshop connects visual art-making with sustainability and learning about the natural environment and can be tailored to suit the context of your school environment or surroundings.

Work with a professional visual artist and select from creating artwork from recycled materials or native flora. This workshop has the option of connecting visual art techniques and making, with science and biology concepts and learning.

IMPROVISATION (PRIMARY AND SECONDARY)

Improvisation is a crucial skill in acting and offers many other educational benefits. Not only is improvising a lot of fun, but it also assists in teaching verbal and non-verbal communication, active listening, collaboration, and being open to others' ideas. In this workshop, we play fun and fast-paced improvisation games, explore character and storytelling while learning to express new ideas through improvisation.

INTRODUCTION TO DRAMA (PRIMARY AND SECONDARY)

Suitable for all ages, the Barking Gecko Arts Introduction to Drama workshop will spark students' curiosity with a taste of our best drama games and exercises which explore characterisation, improvisation, movement, voice, storytelling and devising.

TERRIFIC TEXTILES (PRIMARY AND SECONDARY)

Explore colour, shapes, dying techniques, and fibre. Textile arts can connect the visual arts curriculum with areas of math and science using fractions, measurement, and chemical reactions.

Select from screen printing, tie dye, or felting for your students to get hands-on experience with making unique textile creations.

MOVEMENT/PHYSICAL THEATRE (SECONDARY)

Are your students sometimes so focused on the text they forget that their movement and non-verbal communication are just as important in their performance? Movement is a crucial element in performance and can often be overlooked when caught up in the text. This workshop is designed to increase students' awareness of their bodies on stage, focusing on physical presence, gesture, mime and characterising movement. Curated by Barking Gecko Arts' top Teaching Artists, this workshop will balance out your students' focus, increasing their awareness of their body in performance.

THEATRE PRACTITIONERS (SECONDARY)

This workshop can greatly benefit upper high school drama students as they begin to enter the world of some of the most prolific theatre practitioners we have come to know. We will explore the stylistic choices, techniques and approaches of the likes of Bertolt Brecht, Konstantin Stanislavski and Laban.

MONOLOGUES (SECONDARY/ATAR)

Supporting secondary drama students, particularly those studying ATAR Drama, this new workshop is designed to assist students in exploring, developing and delivering Monologues.

This workshop will assist your students across both Set and Selected Monologues through script analysis, character development, blocking and performance, transforming their ideas into intriguing and structurally clear work.

Whether your students have selected their work or are looking for inspiration, we can tailor the workshop specifically for you.

Please note that our standard cancellation period is no later than 15 business days prior to the workshop

INSPIRE SCHOOLS

Building on the success and enriched learning outcomes of the inaugural INSPIRE Creative Learning Access Program 2020-2022, which saw over 12,500 students experience outstanding live theatre performance and actively engage in the Arts curriculum, we are delighted to announce our next chapter which increases our connection across three locations.

Our INSPIRE Schools seek to provide opportunities for students and school communities who may otherwise not have the capacity to engage in high-quality Arts experiences due to social, geographic or financial challenges. At the heart of INSPIRE is our desire to enrich engagement in the Arts for school communities and their students through live theatre performance.

INSPIRE schools are supported by our program partners in each location. Our INSPIRE Schools enable students to experience Barking Gecko Arts through a variety of fully subsidised:

- Tickets to School Season Performances
- Financial assistance towards the cost of bus transportation
- Curriculum-Linked Learning & Engagement Resource
- In-school performance workshops linked to our School Season Performances delivered by Barking Gecko Arts Teaching Artists

CREATIVE LEARNING PARTNERSHIPS

IMMERSE PROGRAM

Created by Barking Gecko Arts Artistic and Learning & Engagement Teams and funded through the Creative Learning Partnerships Program (Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries), IMMERSE combines the beauty of live performance, exquisite production design and immersive learning outcomes.

Developed to bring theatre into classrooms, each session commences with a live performance. Through participatory elements, students (and their teachers!) are then invited to step 'inside the story' and propel the narrative forward through drama activities which engage creativity and imagination. The IMMERSE Program experience continues between sessions through follow up in-class activities which are provided ready for delivery.

Co-designed with a panel of practicing classroom teachers, documentation outlining connections to the Drama and English Syllabus (Years 3 – 6) of the Western Australian Curriculum K-10 is provided to support access to, and delivery of specific strands as well as links to overarching General Capabilities.

THE MASTER COLLECTOR

Emery Whipple is a Master Collector who travels the world collecting objects and stories with their dutiful assistant, Kip. However, the art of collecting is endangered, and the world is running out of stories!

Emery and Kip's journey has brought them to classrooms across our state with a special mission - to recruit new members to The Global Society of Collectors! But when a puzzling object crawls into Emery's teapot while visiting the beautiful Western Australian coastline, their mission is thrown off course.

Enlisting the help of students - the newly appointed new Junior Collectors - Emery and Kip work to unravel the mystery with the hope of finding a home for the unclassifiable 'thingmabob'. However, when a villainous bureaucracy tries to intervene, they must use their collective imagination to find a solution and dream a new world into existence.

Inspired by Australian artist, writer and film maker Shaun Tan's exquisite picture book, The Lost Thing, the Master Collector is a participatory, immersive storytelling experience about difference, belonging and the power of imagination.

Delivered through one-hour hybrid 'performance workshops' across five weeks, learning is embedded in the narrative. Students are front and centre of the story, playing an active role in its development and imagining a way for everyone - and everything - to have a home.

THE IMAGINARIUM

Barking Gecko Arts new interactive web portal (created by award-winning digital design and development agency, Strange Animals) has been created as a new, free and ongoing resource available to all schools across Western Australia who participate in Barking Gecko Arts School Season performances or Learning & Engagement programs. The portal aims to provide additional student engagement activities and educator professional learning opportunities that are engaging, accessible and interactive. It will host 'behind the scenes' experiences, interactive video content, program overviews, booking details and opportunities for a range of enquiries as well as acting as an archive for our repertoire programming and Learning & Engagement Resources.

CREATIVE CHALLENGE

Creative Challenge is Barking Gecko Arts' annual artist-in-residency program. It places two amazing, professional teaching artists within a school or community. For one or two weeks, the teaching artists devise, develop, and manage a project using a process-driven project management methodology.

The program is child-led and involves young participants in creating art that shares the uniqueness of their community and identity. Each residency culminates in a celebration, where the works created are showcased for the community to enjoy.

The aim of Creative Challenge is to celebrate the talents and stories of young people in regional and remote Western Australia and to instil a sense of pride, ownership, and place within the communities.

Regional Creative Challenge Residencies

Creative Challenge conducts residencies across the Pilbara, Kimberly, Mid-West, Gascoyne, Goldfields-Esperance, Great Southern, and South West regions of Western Australia—Barking Gecko Arts visits everywhere, from bustling regional hubs to the most remote communities in WA. The program is predominantly delivered in schools but can also be delivered in community hubs if sufficient support and contact time are available.

How do I get involved?

Creative Challenge is a FREE program. Communities visited are selected in collaboration with our funders, and places are extremely limited.

STEAMED UP

STEAMED Up is a long-term, process-driven partnership program that works with the same group of students over a 12-month period. The program enriches children's and teachers' wellbeing and educational needs by building meaningful creative projects with participating students.

The program combines STEM disciplines together with Arts, Creativity, Enterprise/Entrepreneurship, and design (STEAMED) to deliver impactful learning outcomes for students and their teachers and combines this with the seven critical skillsets for success in future workplaces.

The seven key skillsets for success in the future workplace are:

Science

Technology

Engineering

Arts

Mathematics

Enterprise/
Entrepreneurship

Design

Critical thinking and problem-solving

Collaboration across networks

Agility and adaptability

Initiative and Entrepreneurship

Communicating Effectively

Assessing and Analysing information

Curiosity and Imagination

In 2025, Barking Gecko Arts will partner with Newman Primary School to co-design a strategic Partnership Plan and build 4 multi-artform residencies. The program targets specific Social and Emotional Wellbeing factors, STEM, curriculum, and professional development areas for school staff.

A longer partnership allows for meaningful year-long relationships between Barking Gecko Arts and the teachers and school staff. This also gives artists the opportunity to build rapport with the students and to build the program more specifically to the interests and talents of participating students.
