

BARKING GECKO THEATRE COVID-19 TICKETING TERMS AND CONDITIONS AMENDMENTS

Important notice: Please note the additional Terms & Conditions that apply while the West Australian State of Emergency Directions for the COVID-19 pandemic are in place. The additions are to be read in conjunction with Barking Gecko Theatre's standard Terms & Conditions (below).

The presentation of Barking Gecko Events is subject to all government orders relating to COVID-19, not limited to but including the requirement to demonstrate your proof of vaccination status and the wearing of face masks. Anyone who is required to comply with a government order at an Event and does not or does not have a valid exemption will be denied entry to that event.

Expanded proof of vaccination requirements from Monday 31 January 2022

From 31 January 2022, it is a condition of entry at WA indoor entertainment centres, including but not limited to theatres, that ticket-holders aged 16 years and over must demonstrate proof of receiving a double dose COVID-19 vaccination or a medical exemption sufficient to meet WA State Government requirements. Any patron 16 years and over without valid proof of vaccination or without a valid proof of medical exemption will be denied entry. This includes all events at State Theatre Centre of WA among others.

You will not be entitled to a refund if you do not comply with vaccination requirements. For ticket buyers who booked prior to 21 January 2022, you can request a refund if you are unable to comply with these conditions. Please email your details including order number to gecko@barkinggecko.com.au at least 48hrs prior to the performance.

For information on how you can show valid proof of your COVID-19 vaccination status or a medical exemption, visit www.wa.gov.au/government/covid-19-coronavirus/covid-19-coronavirus-proof-of-covid-19-vaccinations

Mandatory Mask Wearing

As of 17 January Masks are mandatory for all indoor public venues in Perth, Peel and South West. More information - www.wa.gov.au/government/announcements/masks-introduced-the-south-west-region

Should a Barking Gecko Event become subject to government orders mandating the wearing of face masks or any other requirement mandated by the Government, it is a condition of entry that you will need to wear a mask within the venue or comply with the requirement or present evidence of a medical exemption if applicable.

Do not attend if you are unwell

As an interim COVID-19 measure, if you feel unwell before a show, we ask that you please stay home in order to keep our community safe. Please contact Barking Gecko or the venue by email or phone prior to the show and we can discuss your options.

COVID-19 Exchanges and Refunds

While generally a refund of a ticket is not applicable as a result of a change in your personal circumstances, for the safety of our artists, staff and other ticket-holders, you should not attend a performance if you are unwell. Barking Gecko's refund and exchange policy as related to COVID-19 can be viewed below. This applies if you:

- a) Develop any of the recognised symptoms of COVID-19;
- b) Come into contact with someone displaying COVID-19 symptoms;
- c) Come into contact with a confirmed case of COVID-19;
- d) Lived in or been in a high risk area within Australia;
- e) Return from overseas; or
- f) Are required to self-isolate or quarantine (and the Event falls within that isolation or quarantine period) by reason of paragraphs (a) to (e) above.

We reserve the right to require that you provide supporting documentation including but not limited to medical documentation where reasonably required.

Refunds and exchanges will be available before the Event. Please contact Barking Gecko Theatre or the venue prior to the event to discuss your options.

No refunds or exchanges will be available after the Event has taken place. If you are unable to attend an Event due to insufficient proof of vaccination status, or failure to comply with government mandated conditions of entry (as per above), Barking Gecko refuses the right to provide a refund or exchange.

If you have any queries regarding the above, please contact Barking Gecko at gecko@barkinggecko.com.au

Changes to Events

Should WA Government health advice change, and result in a subsequent change in venue capacity for an Event, Barking Gecko may need to cancel and refund a portion of purchased tickets. If this happens, the most recently purchased tickets will be cancelled first. We encourage you to book early to avoid disappointment.

We endeavour to keep ticket-holders informed at all times but recognise that Event details may sometimes change with little or no notice. Please ensure your contact information is up-to-date and correct. If you fail to provide sufficient and appropriate contact information, Barking Gecko is not responsible for the failure to contact you. You can view Barking Gecko's Privacy Policy here.

Contact registration & ServiceWA app

Contact registers are mandatory at most venues where our events are held for individuals aged 16 years and over. We recommend downloading the State Government's ServiceWA app. More information - www.wa.gov.au/organisation/government-of-western-australia/servicewa-mobile-app
